COMMENTARY

YOY COMPARISON 31 DECEMBER

Net revenue was up 74.9% compared to last year. The increase in net revenue is primarily due to the increase in FUM⁺ and slight shift in mix of FUM⁺ across investment strategies to higher management fee margin strategies.

Performance fees remain a nominal % of overall net revenue. Weighted average management fees 49.2bps as compared to 48.6bps for FY20.

Operating expenses increased 27.9% driven by 36.1% growth in FUM⁺ and 38.6% increase in headcount. Third party commissions and the middle office expense included in G&A are generally FUM⁺ driven. Compensation expense and IT are directly impacted by the increase in headcount.

Taxes expense rose sharply after the restructure and IPO as GQG was taxed as a corporation from 10/28/21 to 12/31/21.

31 DECEMBER 2021 ACTUALS VS FORECAST

- Actual FY21 results are in alignment with the forecast.
- Actual net cash flow for the 6-month forecast period was US$6.2B; US$2.3B higher than the forecast of US$3.9B.
- Expenses were under the forecast in all categories generally due to timing of net flows, new employees and the commencement of certain projects.
- G&A expenses are lower than plan due to continued impact of COVID reducing expenditures on travel, consulting, and marketing.
- Income tax expense is greater than the forecast primarily due to profits greater than the forecast and a slight increase in the projected current effective tax rate for the period after the IPO (from 27.20% to 27.22%).

COMMENTARY

- Aside from corporate tax payments, the main uses of cash have historically been and are expected to continue to be the funding of working capital, ongoing purchases of fund interests required to maintain alignment with clients and the payment of dividends.
- Cash taxes paid will be lower than tax expense by approximately US$4M, the amortization of the deferred tax asset. The cash tax savings will be added to net income after tax to arrive at distributable earnings, the basis of the dividend.
- On 25 February 2022, the Board of Directors approved a dividend of $0.0154 per share related to earnings post the IPO and equivalent to 90% of the earnings plus the cash tax savings from the DTA.
